

A close-up profile of a brown alpaca's head, facing right. The alpaca's mouth is open, revealing its teeth. The fur is thick and brown. The background is a blurred natural setting.

Alpaca Fast Facts

1. Alpacas produce one of the world's finest and most luxurious natural fibers.

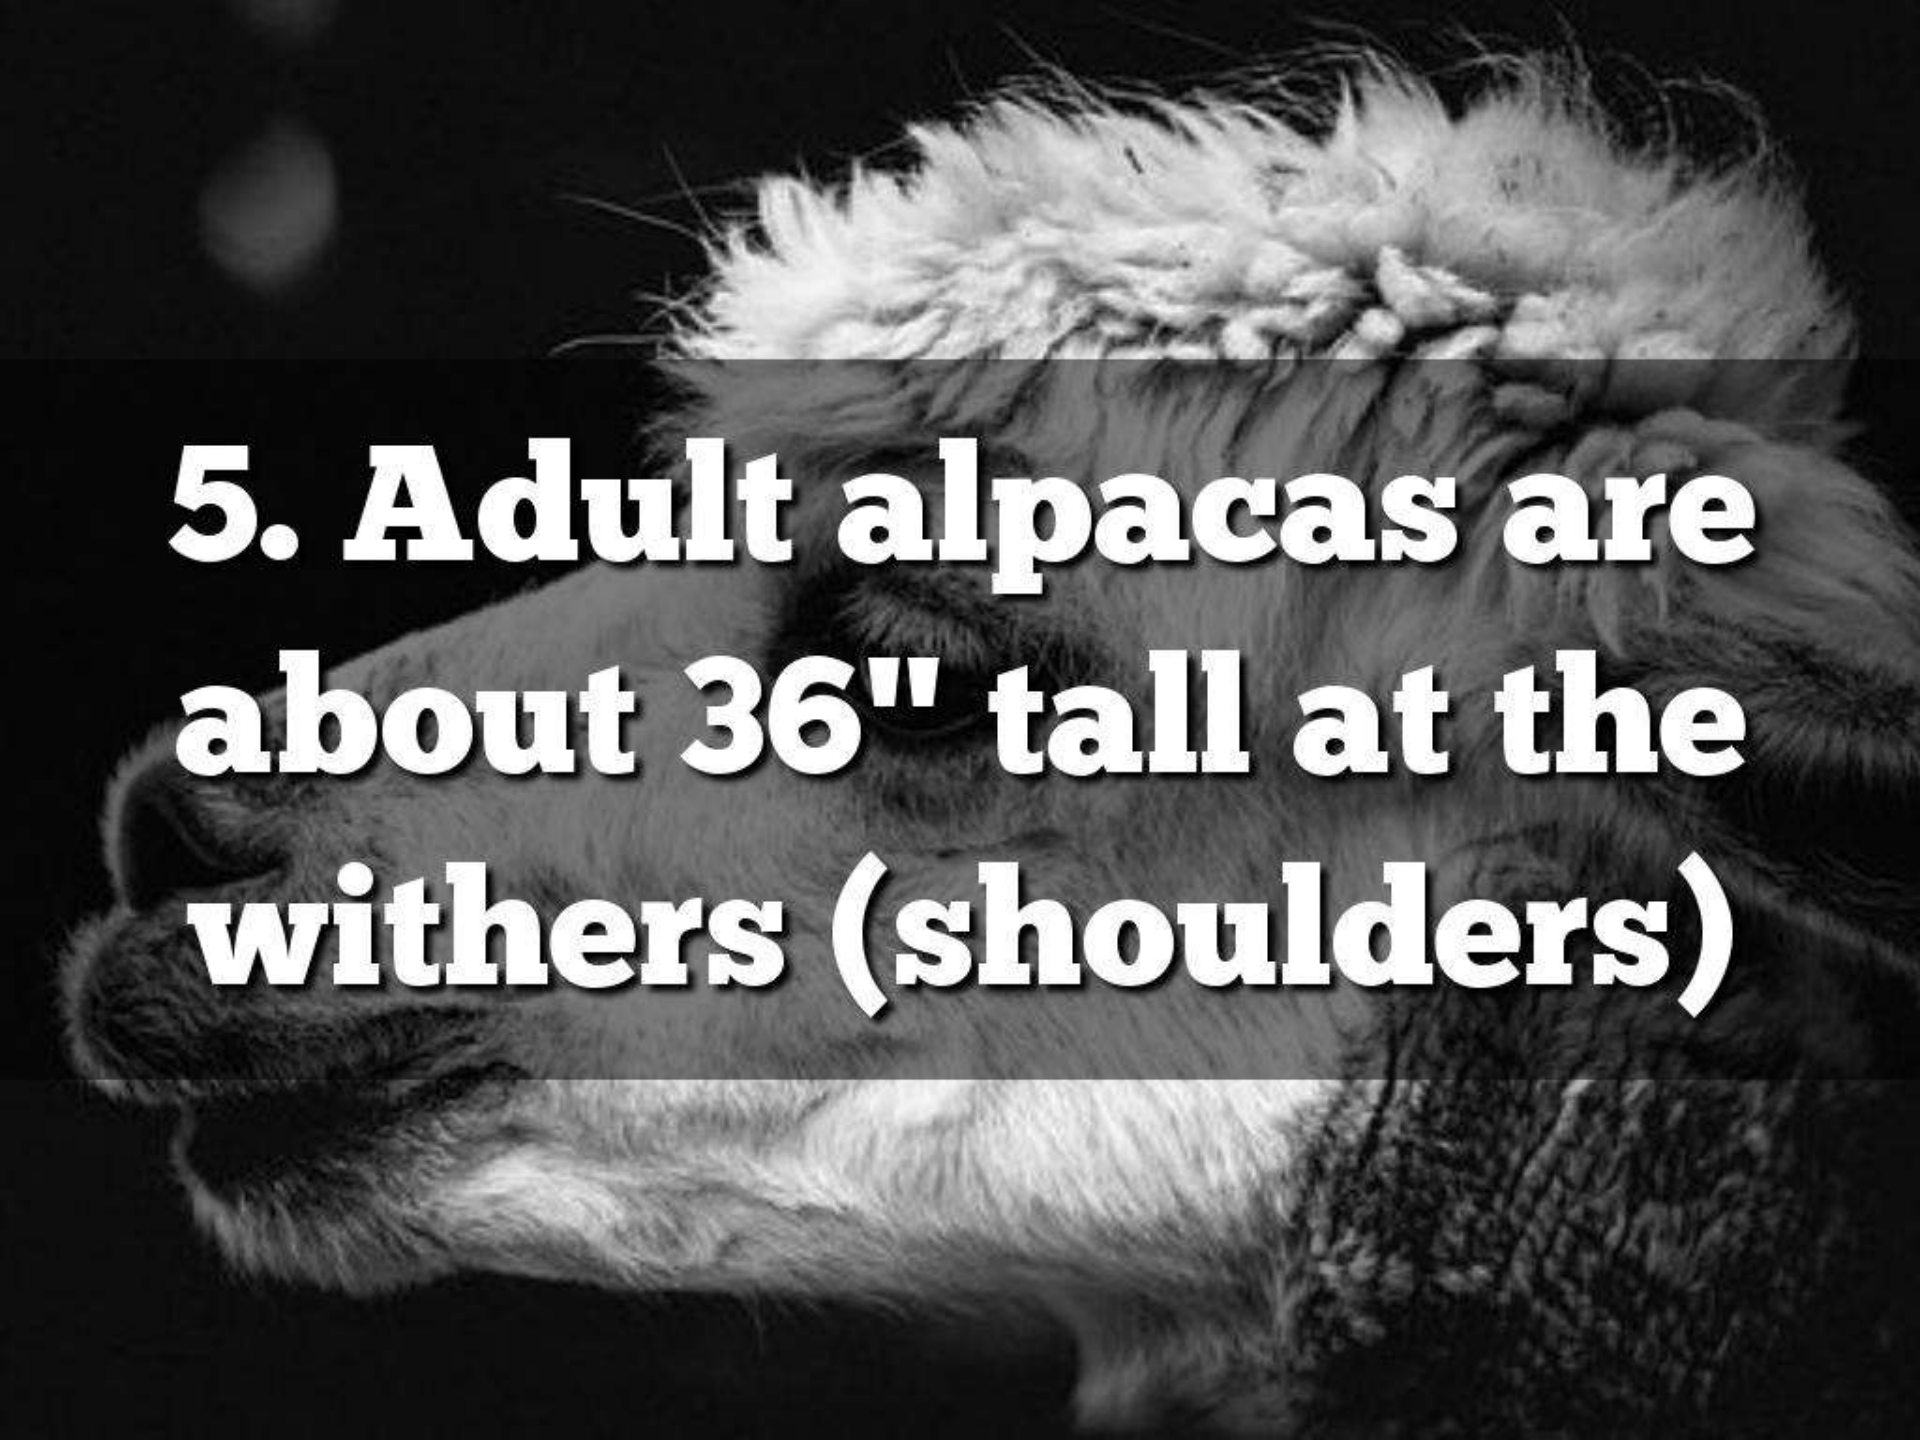

2. Alpacas maintained a central place in the Incan civilization of the Andes Mountains in Peru.

3. Alpacas were first imported to the United States in 1984.

4. The life span of an alpaca is about 20 years.

5. Adult alpacas are about 36" tall at the withers (shoulders)

6. Adult alpacas weigh between 100 and 200 pounds.

7. Alpacas are gentle and easy to handle by young and old alike.

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a blue long-sleeved shirt with a crest on the left chest, is sitting at a desk. She is looking towards the camera with a slight smile. In front of her is a computer monitor displaying a website with a blue header and various text blocks. A webcam is mounted on top of the monitor. To the left of the monitor is a beige telephone. In front of the monitor is a black mouse and a keyboard. To the right of the mouse is a blue folder or book with a map of Ecuador on the cover. The background is a plain wall.

Visit Our Website

A close-up photograph of a person's hand clicking a white computer mouse. The hand is positioned over the mouse, with the index finger resting on the left button. The background is a plain, light-colored surface. A dark horizontal bar is overlaid across the middle of the image, containing the text "CLICK HERE" in a bold, white, sans-serif font.

CLICK HERE